Graduation Stepping Stone and Quilt Blessing Next Sunday, June 13th

During next Sunday's worship service we will be celebrating the graduations of four of our high school youth: Kaylei Clark, Samantha Coulston, Lilliana Dicks and Francisco Young. Come join us in prayer and support for these young people as we share in a Graduation Faith Stepping Stone that includes a Blessing of Quilts given to them that were made by our SELC members. Then join us on the patio after worship for a cupcake and punch reception for them. Help us send them out into the world with love and strength in this special ceremony!

Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest - Incontinence Supplies Drive

Did you know that diapers and/or incontinence supplies can average $100 a month? These products are not covered by insurance when a client is living in their own home. Too many of our neighbors lack the funds to access to this basic need that is so important to health and wellbeing.

To help, SELC is collecting new unopened packages of adult size diapers and bed pads to donate to our local elderly and disabled clients of LSS-SW. If you wish to give a financial donation please make out to SELC and note "LSS-SW Supply Drive." You can give the comfort of health and happiness to neighbors in need. For more information contact Linda Radwick 439-5019.
