GATHERING

Chimes (Please observe silence as soon as the chimes are played to assist with preparation for worship.)

Prelude "Hymns for the Saints" (arr. B. Hayes)

Welcome

Remembering the Saints (We gather in the Columbarium)

Pastor: When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death.

All: We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father,
we too might live a new life.
For if we have been united with him in a death like his,
we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

Leader: A reading from First Thessalonians: We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died.

(1 Thessalonians 4:13-14)

P: In joyful expectation of the resurrection to eternal life, we remember this day those who have gone before us in faith and who now rest from their labors, especially those members and friends who are dear to us and who have died since last All Saints Day...

Here individual names are spoken. A bell is tolled after names are read.

P: Dear God,

All: As we remember these beloved brothers and sisters, strengthen us to follow Christ through this world
until we are carried into the harvest of eternal life, where suffering and death will be no more. Amen.

L: Let us go forth in the joy and strength of the Lord.

- 1 For all the saints who from their labors rest,
who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 3 Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine,
we feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
and hearts are brave again and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 5 The golden evening brightens in the west;
soon, soon to faithful servants cometh rest;
sweet is the calm of paradise the blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 6 But then there breaks a yet more glorious day:
the saints triumphant rise in bright array;
the King of glory passes on his way.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
- 7 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRAYERS AND BLESSING

A Prayer for the Week: Dear God of our Lord Jesus Christ, give us wisdom to come to know you and a thankful heart for all the saints. Amen. (Ephesians 1:17-18)

Mealtime Prayer: As we receive this food today, we seek your blessing for those who are hungry now that they may be filled. Amen. (Luke 6:21)

A Blessing to Give: May the Lord bless you, fill you with good things and give you joy. (Luke 6:20-21)

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home, small group, or use for personal reflections:

- Who is someone you look up to? Why?
- Think of someone you think is a “saint.” How would you describe what makes them a “saint?”
- Name a person you admire for their faith in Christ. In what ways have they influenced you?

DEVOTIONS: Read: Ephesians 1:11-23.

We can easily think of saints as those who live (or lived) super-Christian lives, people who are heroes of the faith, especially from the past. However, saints are simply those people who have “obtained an inheritance . . . according to the purpose of him [Christ]” (v. 11). In 1 Corinthians 1:2, Paul considered the believers at Corinth “saints,” although there were all kinds of conduct that Paul strongly opposed in the church there. We are made saints by the counsel and will of Christ. Ephesians 1:15 commends the church at Ephesus for their faith and love for “all the saints.” And this is why Paul gives thanks for this community of believers. It is easy to judge and condemn those around us, but to give thanks for and to bless (Luke 6:20-22) the saints, the church, which is Christ’s body, is what we do. The more we—for the sake of Christ—give thanks for our fellow saints, past and present, the more we can move ahead to bless the world with the power of the risen Christ. Who are some of the saints—past and present—who have blessed you and who you want to give thanks for today?

Pray: Holy God, as people who are called “saints,” give us the faith to offer thanks for those around us called by the will of Christ to live for the praise of your glory. Amen.

SERVICE: In 2 Corinthians 8:1-7 Paul is speaking about the church in Macedonia. They were going through hard times and not wealthy, but their giving was driven by joy and their praise of Christ’s love for them. They were filled with God’s grace and gave generously. A Christian response to God’s gift of grace is giving. In what ways do you embrace this gift through giving of your time, talents, and treasures?

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS: All Saints Sunday is a time when we remember those who have gone before us as well as those Christians who surround us in our daily life of faith. It is a day to think about the family of God and our own families who are part of that same faith family. Find a family picture album and tell stories as you look at family and friends. How did they inspire you? What role did they have in your faith journey?
